CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2. The purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down a cash deposit of at least 25 per cent., or the whole of the purchase money, if required, in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

3. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within 24 hours after the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the auctioneer, on or before delivery; in default of which the undersigned will not hold himself responsible if the lots be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser.

4. No checks received unless certified.

5. The sale of any article is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description or imperfection, and no warranty whatever is made. All articles are sold just as they are, without recourse.

6. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can, on any account, be removed during the sale.

7. No claims allowed after the removal of goods.

8. Our record of sales in all cases final.

9. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all lots uncared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this sale, without such re-sale if he thinks fit.

AIME PERRET

Paris

Born at Lyon, in 1846

275.

He began exhibiting in the Salon in 1872, and received his first medal in 1877, followed by others in 1888 and 1889. At the Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893, he was declared "hors concours," and in the same year he was appointed "Chevalier" of the Legion of Honor. His Salon picture of 1876 was purchased by Princess Mathilde, and the one of 1877, "A Christening en Bourgogne," by the City of Lyon. The French Government has bought a number of Perret's works, first in 1879, Le "Saint Vatique" for the "Musée du Luxembourg," then his Salon picture of 1881 for the Musée de Carcassone," of 1885 for the "Musée de Chalons-sur-Marne," of 1886 for the Musée de Morlais," of 1897 for the "Musée de Nantes," and the city of Paris acquired his painting, "L'Aieule." Besides Aimé Perret is represented in many of the most prominent private collections in France and abroad. He is called the painter of the "happy peasants" in difference of Millet, who painted the "very poor peasants." History will place the name of Aimé Perret in the same class with those of Millet, Rousseau, Jacque, and all those great artists who have shown us in their works the poetry of the field, its joys, its sorrows, and its eternal beauty
